Meet the Staff

Heather Graham – BC3 Head Coach

- Junior Olympic Head Coach for King of the Court (located in South Butler)
- Camp Director / Passing and Hitting Coach
- Playing Accomplishments: Assisted team in competing in a National Tournament, All Conference, passer/hitter starter
- Coaching Accomplishments: BC3 WPCC Conference runner-up in first season

Nicole Bajuszik – Asst. Coach La Roche

- Camp Director / Setting Coach
- Playing Accomplishments: Tournament MVP, 2 years All Conference, 2 years All State, Team Captain

More about the Coaches:

Heather Graham and Nicole Bajuszik have known each other and played together for 6 years. They both started at BC3 and then transferred on to La Roche College. Since graduating college, Nicole has coached at La Roche for almost three years and Heather at BC3 for one season. Heather has expanded her coaching beyond the college and coaches a 14 and under team for the King of the Court Volleyball Club. It is rare to find a pair of players turned coaches, who have grown together and have similar, and what they feel is a unique, coaching style. They are committed to making each player better and stronger through repetition, discipline and structure.

About La Roche College

La Roche is a Catholic, 4 year institution that is located in the North Hills. It is a private, Liberal Arts college that focuses on being the best for the world. There are about 1800 Undergraduate students with a class ratio of 12:1.

About BC3

Butler County Community College first opened its doors to students on September 26, 1966. As the first community college in Western Pennsylvania, BC3 earned the Pioneer name. Today, more than 3,700 students are enrolled in credit programs and another 25,000 students take part in the many other education opportunities available at BC3's main campus and affiliated sites in Lawrence and Mercer counties.

BC3 main campus is known for its 323 acres of oak groves, rolling hills, walking paths, and a safe, comfortable atmosphere.
