Doctor’s Hooding Ceremony

General Information

The Doctor’s Hooding Ceremony recognizes those who have earned their doctor’s degree and gives the university an opportunity to emphasize the importance of graduate education in the life of a research institution.

- Each doctor’s degree candidate will be hooded individually on stage by a faculty member of the candidate’s choice.
- Each candidate is responsible for inviting a member of the faculty to participate in the hooding.
- Tickets are not distributed, nor required for the ceremony. There is no limit to the number of guests who may attend, although seating is limited. Guests are advised to arrive early as seating is first-come, first-serve.
- This is an academic ceremony. Caps and gowns are required for all participants. Cap and gown orders can be placed via the commencement website: www.cmu.edu/commencement.
- Diplomas will not be distributed and degrees will not be conferred at this ceremony.

Degrees will be conferred on all degree candidates (bachelor’s, master’s and doctor’s) at Commencement at 11 a.m., Sunday, May 20 in Gesling Stadium. All doctor’s degree candidates should plan to attend Commencement and wear their hoods as part of their academic regalia.

Diplomas will be distributed to all candidates at departmental or college diploma ceremonies scheduled to take place throughout commencement weekend.

Questions regarding Commencement or the Doctor’s Hooding Ceremony should be directed to Jennifer Boyer, Director of University Events (jboyer@cmu.edu) or 412-268-5052.

Faculty Member and Department Head Information

Doctor’s candidates have been asked to confirm with their department graduate coordinator both his or her participation in the ceremony and the name of the faculty member who will be assisting in his/her hooding.

- Each doctor’s candidate will invite a faculty member to assist in hooding him/her on stage at the ceremony.
- Candidates will be hooded alphabetically by college and by department within the college (with the exception of Tepper School, which will hood straight alpha order).

Department heads should plan to be available to hood candidates from their department in the event a selected faculty member or advisor is not available.

Faculty who are participating in the hooding ceremony should plan to robe with the doctor’s candidates in Rangos Hall, University Center at 7 p.m., prior to the ceremony. A reception for all candidates, their families, friends and all program participants will take place in Rangos Hall and Schatz Dining Room, University Center at 9:30 p.m., or at the conclusion of the ceremony.

Faculty members who are not assisting in hooding doctor’s candidates are welcome to attend the ceremony but do not need to robe.
