Bento: n. [Japanese] 1. A box lunch or picnic lunch. 2. A box or basket with multiple compartments, containing a collection of disparate elements arranged in an esthetically pleasing manner.

The design of Bento was only possible because of valuable contributions by many people.

Special thanks to David Austin, Vincent Lo, Jerry Morrison, Peter Miller, Richard Moore, Alex Morrow, Erik Neumann, Steve Shaw, Scott Swix, Steve Szymanski, Ken Turkowski, and Russell Williams.

Without their participation, Bento as it is today could not exist.
