NORTHROP GRUMMAN

CUTTING-EDGE TECHNOLOGY FOR GLOBAL SECURITY

At Northrop Grumman, our work with cutting-edge technology is driven by the lives our technology protects. Our customers are responsible for ensuring global security and they need state of the art systems and technologies to perform their mission. Here, you'll go to work every day knowing that your job is to enable that mission, to help protect lives and defend freedom. Vern Boyle, vice president, Advanced Technologies, will discuss the cutting-edge technologies that you can help develop at Northrop Grumman and how you can join our team.
