

Technology, Meet Business.

How can your really cool technology solve real world problems? How can your brilliant hack reach users? How can it make money? How can it become the NEXT BIG THING? That's where we come in.

Participate in the Yahoo! Hack Pitch and form a team with students from Tepper School's MBA program and stand a chance to win additional prizes and unlimited glory for no extra effort!

Sign up and we'll find you some really smart MBA students to work with. Contact Harsimran Brar (hbrar@tepper.cmu.edu) to sign up.

Event: Hack Pitch
When: October 15th, 2011
