DISCLAIMER

The information provided in this manual describes the iWarp component developed in the iWarp technology development program and is subject to change without notice. No representation or announcement of Intel products is expressed or implied.

The view, opinions, and/or findings contained in this manual should not be interpreted as representing the official policies, either expressed or implied, of the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency or the Department of the Navy, Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command, or the position of Carnegie Mellon University.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The work resulting in the concepts and systems described in this manual is supported, in part, by Defense Advanced Projects Agency (DoD), ARPA Order No. 4864, monitored by the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command under Contract number 00039-C-0134 and Contract Number 00039-87-C-0254 and, in part, by Intel Corporation.

We particularly acknowledge the efforts of the Carnegie Mellon University, School of Computer Science, Warp team. This team included, Dr. H.T. Kung, his associates, and his students who provided the primary technical direction for iWarp technology.
