VA: Name _____ andrewID _____

Quizlet 6

For each of the following statements, fill in the blank with the most relevant term/phrase we learned about in lecture.

1. To produce AI-generated code that we can be confident meets our goals and is correct, we should 1. _____, 2. Read, trace, and understand the AI output, and 3. Test and verify the output, then iterate on the prompt if needed.

2. When an AI produces output that sounds confident and fluent but is fabricated or unsupported, it is called a(n) _____.

3. A(n) _____ is synthetic media (image, video, or audio) generated or altered using AI.

4. We can write a program that requests real-time online data like weather information using a(n) _____ .

5. A(n) _____ can be included between a function header and the function body to thoroughly describe what the function does, as well as its input and output.

VB: Name _____ andrewID _____

Quizlet 6

For each of the following statements, fill in the blank with the most relevant term/phrase we learned about in lecture.

1. To produce AI-generated code that we can be confident meets our goals and is correct, we should 1. _____, 2. Read, trace, and understand the AI output, and 3. Test and verify the output, then iterate on the prompt if needed.

2. A(n) _____ is synthetic media (image, video, or audio) generated or altered using AI.

3. A(n) _____ can be included between a function header and the function body to thoroughly describe what the function does, as well as its input and output.

4. When an AI produces output that sounds confident and fluent but is fabricated or unsupported, it is called a(n) _____.

5. We can write a program that requests real-time online data like weather information using a(n) _____ .