The Frederking Family Tree

A. Westphalian-(‘‘Kur’’)Hessian-American branch

2nd Edition   Newly worked out by Karl Frederking (A^2 VII 14) in Jena in the year 1909, on the basis of the original family tree developed by his father Heinrich Frederking (A^2 VI 18) in 1855 in Kassel.

[Translated from the German by Robert Frederking, grandson of Theodor Frederking (A^2 IX 14), in Pittsburgh.]

Notes:

1. Abbreviations: ✶ = born, ☆ = baptized, ✝ = died, Δ = buried, ∞ = married, nee (‘‘gb’’ or ‘‘geb’’) = maiden name, ℜ = retired, Fr or Frdkg = Frederking.

2. The Frederking family trees of different stems are indicated with A, B, etc.; the generations with Roman numerals I, II, III, etc., and the members of one row with Arabic numerals 1, 2, 3, etc. The letters A, B, etc, are marked with a superscript that indicates the edition of the family tree. Every member of the family can thereby be precisely designated, for example, A^2 IV 2 is Christoph Wilhelm Frederking, preacher in Lübbecke and Fischbeck, the patriarch of the three branches of stem A that are still living.

3. Several coats of arms have been produced by the Frederkings, which all show the heraldic five-leaved rose as the central figure in the shield (compare neighboring illustration). The other forms are varied and require further investigation.

4. The name Frederking is of Low German origin, formed from Frederik or Fredereck, shortened to Frederk (= Friedrich), and the diminutive ending ‘‘-ing’’, which in family names means essentially descendant of.

5. It is very likely that the formation of the name, and therefore the origin of the Frederkings, is limited to the northeast part of Westphalia (the former principality of Minden, the county of Ravensberg, the adjacent Lippe lands, and parts of Hanover), so that this area must be the ancestral homeland of all Frederkings.

6. Various other Frederkings lived in Minden at the same time as our three oldest ancestors (A^2 I 2 Eberhard, A^2 II 5 Konrad, and A^2 III 8 Rudolf), who quite likely were related to each other and to our ancestors. To make further investigations easier, they are included in this family tree, but with their numerals parenthesized. These are A^2 I 1, II 1 - 4, 6 - 8, III 1 - 5, 14 - 22. In addition there were, and are still today, various Frederkings in Minden who are probably not related to us, but rather to the numerous Frederkings in Hahlen and Hartum by Minden.

7. Ancestors older than A^2 I 2 Eberhard Frederking in Minden [about 1620] have not yet been traced; however, various Frederkings are already documented much earlier, among others the following:

a] 1359 Diderik Frederkingh, ''Altarist'' or ''Vikar'' [curate] in Hanover [belonging to the Bishopric of Minden].

(record book of the Historical Club of Lower Saxony, book V, 1860, page 389, number 386.)

b] 1395 Henneke Fredekink, citizen of Lübbecke in Westphalia.

(''Repertorien'' of St. Andreas in Lübbecke in the Royal Public Record Office in Münster in W.)

c] before 1402 Gertrud Frederking in the Beguine house in Lemgo.

(Lippe ''Regesten'' under numbers 1584 and 1592);

d] 1423 Herman Fredekink in Lübbecke in W. (same as b) e] 1436 Henneke Fredekink, city councilman in Lübbecke in W. (same as b)

f] 1436 Johann Vredekink in Lübbecke in W. (same as b) g] after 1466 Johannes Fredekingk alias Praus, Minden cleric and notary in Herford.

(records of the city of Herford in the Royal Public Record Office in Münster in W.)

h] 1527 Lüdeke Frederking, citizen of Minden.

records of the city of Minden in the Royal Public Record Office in Münster in W.

i] 1528 Johann Frederking, manager of the ''Nikolaihaus'' just outside of the city of Minden. (same as h)

j] [no j]

k] 1566 Johann Frederking, city pension master of Minden. (same as h) l] 1593 to 1599 Lorenz Frederking, one of the six treasurers or aldermen of St. Martin in Minden. (same as h)

m] 1595 Rudolf Frederking in Minden. (same as h)

8. From more recent times the following are documented, but nothing further could be determined:

a] 1702 Eleonore Elisabeth Frederking was confirmed in St. Martin in Minden.

(churchbook.)

b] 1754 Frederking, court councillor to Bückeburg, was listed as godfather at the baptism of A^2 V 7.

(churchbook of Fischbeck, Weser.)

c] 1792 Dorothea Thies (nee Fredeking) in Brunswick [wife of Joh. Christoph Thies].

(entry in the family tree of her cousin Regina Doroth. Beneke in Minden, daughter of A^2 V 3.)

d] 1794 ''Madame'' Frederking of Voerden in the Osnabrück area, godmother at the baptism of A^2 VI 14.

(churchbook of St. Martin in Minden.)

Translator's Notes

My translator's notes are written throughout in italics: [ref].
An underlined name is the name that the person went by.
Place names ending in ''-e'' are probably the same as those without, just in the dative case.

Title: Kurhessisch -- from electoral Hesse: ''Kur'' apparently means ''electoral Hesse'', as opposed to earlier and later regions of the same name.

Problems:
7(a) Altarist
Vikar = curate?
7(b) Repertorien
7(c) Regesten
Beguinenhaus -- Beguine -- a Catholic lay sisterhood founded in Holland
7(i) Nikolaihaus
